This activity is CME certified, therefore, I bring your attention to the following Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) Standards for Commercial Support: STANDARD 4. Appropriate Management of Associated Commercial Promotion 4.1 Arrangements for commercial exhibits or advertisements cannot influence planning or interfere with the presentation, nor can they be a condition of the provision of commercial support for CME activities. 4.2 Product-promotion material or product-specific advertisement of any type is prohibited in or during CME activities. The juxtaposition of editorial and advertising material on the same products or subjects must be avoided. Live (staffed exhibits, presentations) or enduring (printed or electronic advertisements) promotional activities must be kept separate from CME. For live, face-to-face CME, advertisements and promotional materials cannot be displayed or distributed in the educational space immediately before, during, or after a CME activity. Providers of CME cannot allow representatives of Commercial Interests to engage in sales or promotional activities while in the space or in the place of the CME activity. (Refer to ACCME standards at www.accme.org)
