ONLINE Peer Recovery Supporter (PRS) Training Readiness Checklist

Please carefully review the below guidelines to determine if online PRS training is the right option for you. If you are not able to meet the below guidelines, please wait to register, or consider registering for an in-person PRS training. Please check each box.

I can attend all 40 hours of PRS training. I understand that I cannot make-up training time for any reason, and that I will need to begin training again if time is missed.

I have no outside obligations, personal or professional, during training hours. I can devote my time exclusively to training. I understand I cannot be excused from training for medical or other appointments, legal proceedings, or employment.

I have a quiet, private, indoor space to complete training. If others are in my home, I have a private room with a door that can be closed. I understand that the training space is confidential, and no one else may be in the same room during training (including children & family members).

If applicable, I have appropriate childcare arrangements during training hours (I understand children cannot be present during training).

I have a strong, reliable internet connection. I do not lose internet service frequently or have connectivity issues (such as buffering when I play videos). I understand that I cannot miss training time for technical issues.

I have a laptop or desktop computer. I have checked that my microphone and web camera are working. I understand that I cannot complete training on a phone or tablet. PLEASE NOTE: Due to causing significant technical issues, Chromebooks are not permitted.

I am comfortable using Zoom without assistance. I understand that there is not technical assistance available during training.

Disqualifying Offenses Ohio Adult, Family and Youth Peer Supporter Certification

Below please find information for individuals interested in being certified as an Adult, Family or Youth Peer Supporter in Ohio, who have criminal records or are on court sanctions (including probation/parole).

You may view the Ohio Administrative code at this web address:
<https://codes.ohio.gov/ohio-administrativecode/rule-5122-29-15.1>

Individuals on court sanctions, including probation and parole, are eligible to attend PRS training and apply for PRS certification.

At the bottom of this page, you will find a list of disqualifying offenses for Peer Supporter Certification. Per Ohio Administrative Code, if an individual has any of the below offenses, they are not eligible to apply for Peer Supporter Certification. There is no waiver for these offenses. If you do have an offense listed below, make sure that the code of the offense on your record matches the code of the offense listed below. If the code of your offense is not listed below, then the offense is not a disqualifying offense.

If you do have an offense with one of the below codes, you may consider the below 3 options.

Please note that The Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services cannot provide legal advice or assist in any of the below processes:

1. Obtain a Certificate of Qualification for Employment (CQE) through the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction. You may read about the CQE at this web address:
<https://drc.ohio.gov/cqe>
2. Obtain a pardon through the Ohio Governor's Expedited Pardon project:
<https://governor.ohio.gov/wps/portal/gov/governor/priorities/expedited-pardonproject>. The Ohio State University offers assistance with this project: <https://www.ohioexpeditedpardon.org/>
3. Have the charge sealed/expunged from your court record.
